

Give a Holiday Tradition

Caroling under starlit skies, the smell of the Christmas tree when you first bring it indoors. These images of the holidays bespeak tradition.

For many readers, giving The Tennessee Conservationist to family and friends at Christmastime has become a tradition. Every two months a brand-new issue comes along to remind your special people how much you care - not only about them but about Tennessee and its natural beauty, too.

We are again making our special holiday gift offer of five subscriptions for the price of four ($60)! The perfect gift for the children's teachers, the next-door neighbor, Aunt Sarah, your boss - all at a 20% savings!

We'll send a gift card to each person on your subscription list, or we can send them to you to wrap up and stuff in the Christmas stockings.

Start a tradition in your family and with your friends with a gift that keeps on giving year-round --- The Conservationist, the natural choice.

Payment of $60 must be enclosed to receive this offer. For orders of fewer than five subscriptions, the cost is $15 each.

To start with the January/February 2009 issue, holiday gift subscriptions need to be sent to The Conservationist office no later than Dec. 12, 2008.

Offers received after Dec. 12, 2008, will start with the March/April 2009 issue unless the subscriber/gift giver opts to pay an additional $5.50 in advance to cover postage and handling of each copy of the January/February 2009 issue.

The holiday gift subscription special price ends in December 2008.
